FOUND HIS MAN.

Some time ago, Herman Wise the clothing merchant of this city, advertised a certain new brand of "Boys' Duds" and promised a suit of the same good garments to the boy of Astoria who was a sharp enough detective to spot the drummer representing the house that built the goods, when he should arrive in this city, no intimation of any sort was given as to the drummer's personality or characteristics, and the whole matter was left to the native shrewdness of the youngsters. Yesterday, Mr. Al. Clayburg, of the wholesale house in question arrived and entered the bus of the Hotel Occident. He had no sooner seated than he was pounced upon by little Frank Cearn, a bright Astoria "Kid," and hailed as the "top-notch" goods man. Mr. Clayburg admitted his identity and young Cearn got his suit of clothes. Every T. P. A. man entering the city for the past month has been subjected to close scrutiny by the juvenile element always and ever in search of the "top-notch" drummer.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kans., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption."

We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Sold by Hart's drug store.

"Signor Spiritoso is a great musician. isn't he?" says the first impressionable female.

Now that Pobedonosteff has resigned there will be one less jaw-breaker to pronounce in reading the news from Russia, anyway.

Man's Unreasonableness.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Reublian" of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Charles Rogers, druggist, price 50c.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla. writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation. Sold by Frank Hart."

The world will be pardoned if it is inclined to think these stories about the Finns sound a bit fishy.

There are a few people in New York just now who are no interested in the news from Russia or any other distant quarter of the globe.
